Introduction - In Isaiah, God is fond of using analogies to describe His relationship with His people. Today, we encounter two women, in two word pictures, that each tell us something important about our relationship with God.

I. The Miraculous Births.

- A. The barren woman has children!

- B. This passage is fulfilled in the New Testament.
(Gal. 4:27)

- C. What lessons do we learn from the barren woman analogy?

II. A Miraculous Marriage

- A. A wife is separated from her husband.

- B. What does Israel do?

- C. What does God do?

D. What will happen now? The astounding truths -

- 1. God is both –

- 2. God’s “hesed” love overcomes His wrath.

- 3. A model for husbands and fathers.

III. The Miraculous Life.

- A. The cross fulfills God’s pledge in (54:7).

- B. God “forsakes” His Servant.

- C. How God forgives our sin.

- D. Because your Maker is your husband . . .
 - 1.

 - 2.

 - 3.
