

“The Gospel of the Servant”

Isaiah 55:1-13 ♦ Pastor Jim Lennon
June 28, 2020

Introduction - The Good News announced throughout the book of Isaiah is linked to the arrival of the Messiah and the redemption He will accomplish. Isaiah 55 is a whole chapter devoted to how we should respond to the Good News God is announcing.

I. The Good News of Messiah.

- A. God is going to show up and intervene!
- B. God’s salvation will result in happiness and peace.

II. Are You Spiritually Thirsty?

- A. Finding the necessities of life.
- B. There is one place we can fill our soul’s necessities.
- C. What does “spiritual thirst” look like?

- D. Futile ways we try to satisfy our spiritual thirst:
“Why do you spend money for what does not satisfy?”

III. Satisfy Your Spiritual Thirst.

- A. Only God can satisfy our spiritual thirst.
  - 1. “Listen to Me . . . ”
  - 2. “Come to Me . . . ”
- B. What God wants us to hear: Run to Messiah.
- C. Seek and draw close to God through His Servant.
- D. Forsake sinful thoughts and ways.
- E. Plant God’s Word in our heart.

Conclusion -