Introduction - The first part of Isaiah 66 begins with a solemn word, a basic question, and a shocking answer.

I. A Solemn Word.

A. “Thus says the LORD.”

B. An announcement of –

1. What God . . .

2. What God . . .

3. What God . . .

II. Where is the Place God Dwells?

A. The obvious answer: He dwells in heaven.

B. The shocking answer: With people.

C. God’s desire is to dwell with us.

D. He dwells with the person who:

1. Is Humble -

2. Broken in spirit -

3. Trembles at His Word -

E. God has always been drawn to humble, broken people.

F. Who are the “Tremblers?”

G. The word “tremble” (charad) describes a person who desires to be with God, and realize that they are encountering Him in His Word.

H. Tremblers offer the one thing God is after:
