

“My Redeemer Lives!”

Job 19:25 ♦ Pastor Jim Lennon
April 17, 2022

Introduction - When we face life’s greatest challenges our capacity to endure depends on the object and certainty of our hope. No one knew this better than Job, who endured horrible suffering with a hope that extended beyond his physical existence.

I. The Impact of Job’s Calamity.

A. A description of the storm that Job endured: (Job 19:7-22)

B. Job’s moment of clarity: (Job 19:23-27)

II. The Depth of Job’s Confident Hope.

A. A personal relationship.

B. Justice will come.

C. He will live.

III. The Lessons From Job’s Hope..

A. First, our hope must be more than wishful thinking and extend beyond this life.

B. Second, we must have a personal relationship with our Redeemer.

C. Like Job

D. Unlike Job

Conclusion –